

Print the card on regular paper or cardstock, and give it to your mom. Each time your mom redeems one hour of together time, punch a hole in one of the symbols on the card's border. There are 50 symbols, so you're giving your mom roughly one hour of your time each week for a year. Mom can pick one of the suggested examples, or she can come up with something else!

