Long ago, in an ancient kingdom a drop of sunlight fell down from the sky and grew into a flower with magical power that healed the sick and injured. An old lady named Gothel found it and kept it for herself to keep her young and beautiful for eternity.

Teardrop of the sky

Centuries later, the queen of this magical kingdom became ill during childbirth, and her subjects searched the whole kingdom for a cure.

Fortunately, they found the hidden flower and used its magic petals to cure the queen.

She gave birth to a wonderful princess, Rapunzel, born with all the flower's power in her hair.

They then returned to the kingdom where the royal family had a tearful reunion and the princess happily hugged her parents. Later, Flynn and Rapunzel married and lived happily ever after.

With Flynn still laying in Rapunzel's arms they kissed for the first time.

The selfish Gothel, realised that if Rapunzel's hair was cut it would lose its powers and kidnapped the princess to keep her hair's magical power for herself. Rapunzel was locked into a high tower in the middle of the forest where Gothel raised her as her own child.

The king and queen searched long and hard for their daughter and sent up lanterns to the sky each year as a sign to bring her home.

Rapunzel grew up without knowing that the strange beautiful stars she saw from her window, each year on her birthday, were meant for her.

The heartbroken princess cried and tearfully sang the magic song that had kept her evil step-mother alive through the years. In that moment, a magic teardrop fell and landed on Flynn's cheek and he came back to life!

In that very moment Flynn cut Rapunzel's golden hair with a broken mirror shard to free her from Gothel's terrible burden, and died in Rapunzel's arms!

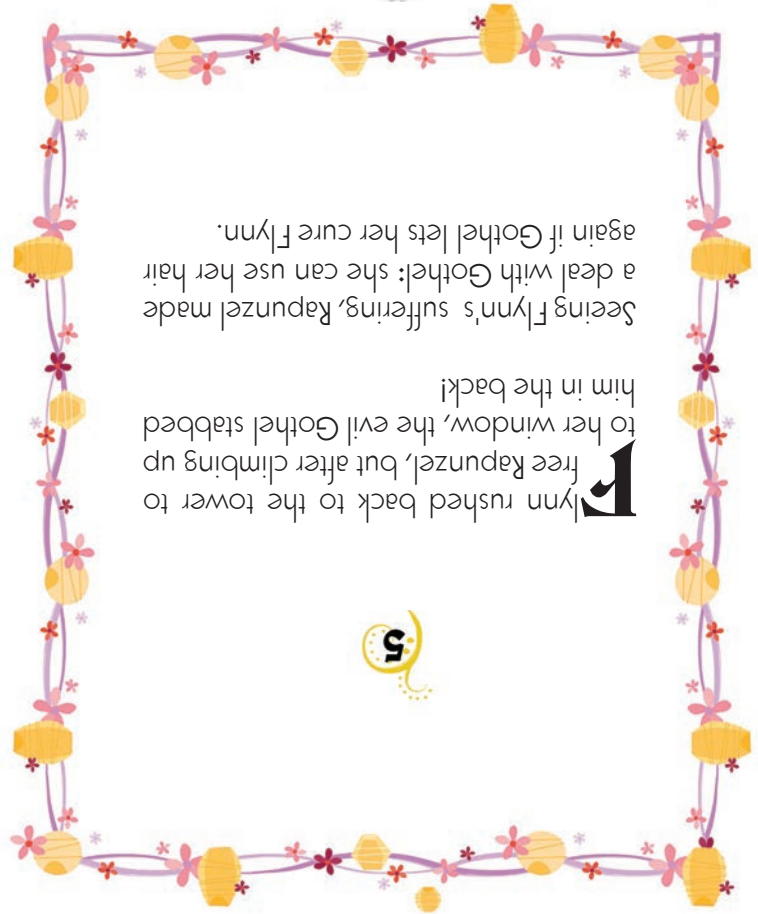

Gothel, seeing Rapunzel's golden hair turning brown and useless tripped and fell from the tower, growing old and turning into dust even before she hit the ground.

Flynn rushed back to the tower to free Rapunzel, but after climbing up to her window, the evil Gothel stabbed him in the back!

Seeing Flynn's suffering, Rapunzel made a deal with Gothel: she can use her hair again if Gothel lets her cure Flynn.

But when Gothel discovered her escape she went after Rapunzel and took Flynn's enemies with her.

After finding them on the lakeshore Gothel made Rapunzel believe that Flynn was betraying her and wanted to kidnap her for her hair. Rapunzel, not knowing the truth, was taken back by Gothel to the tower.

On her 18th birthday Flynn Rider, a charismatic thief climbed into the tower and promised to help Rapunzel find the source of the strange stars - the beautiful lanterns - offering to escort her back to the kingdom.

Especially when Flynn rowed her out onto the water to see the lanterns rise over the kingdom.

After the first steps
from her tower,

Rapunzel slowly realized that the outer world was not as scary and fearsome as Gothel had depicted.
