WHY DO BRAZILIANS SPEAK PORTUGUESE?

Brazil was a colony of Portugal from 1500. Brazil declared its independence from Portugal in 1822, but retained the Portuguese language. Brazil is the only Portuguese-speaking country in the Americas. Brazilian Portuguese has had its own development, which as a result, the language is somewhat different, mostly in phonology, from the language of Portugal. The Brazilian flag famously bears the inscription Ordem e Progresso (Order and Progress).
