Instructions:

1

Print 1 copy of each texture on white cardstock.

You can also use a textured metallic scrapbook paper for a unique armor-like effect.

2

Punch out 1-inch circles to fill entire sheet.

Be sure to punch the circles as close to one another as possible.

You should be able to get 7 rows with 10 circles in each row, giving you 70 punched pieces total.

3

Tie the ends of a piece of twine to create a loop.

Poke a small hole in the center of one of the circles. Slide the loop through the hole.

Place a small bead of hot glue on the knot on the underside and affix to top center of styrofoam ball.

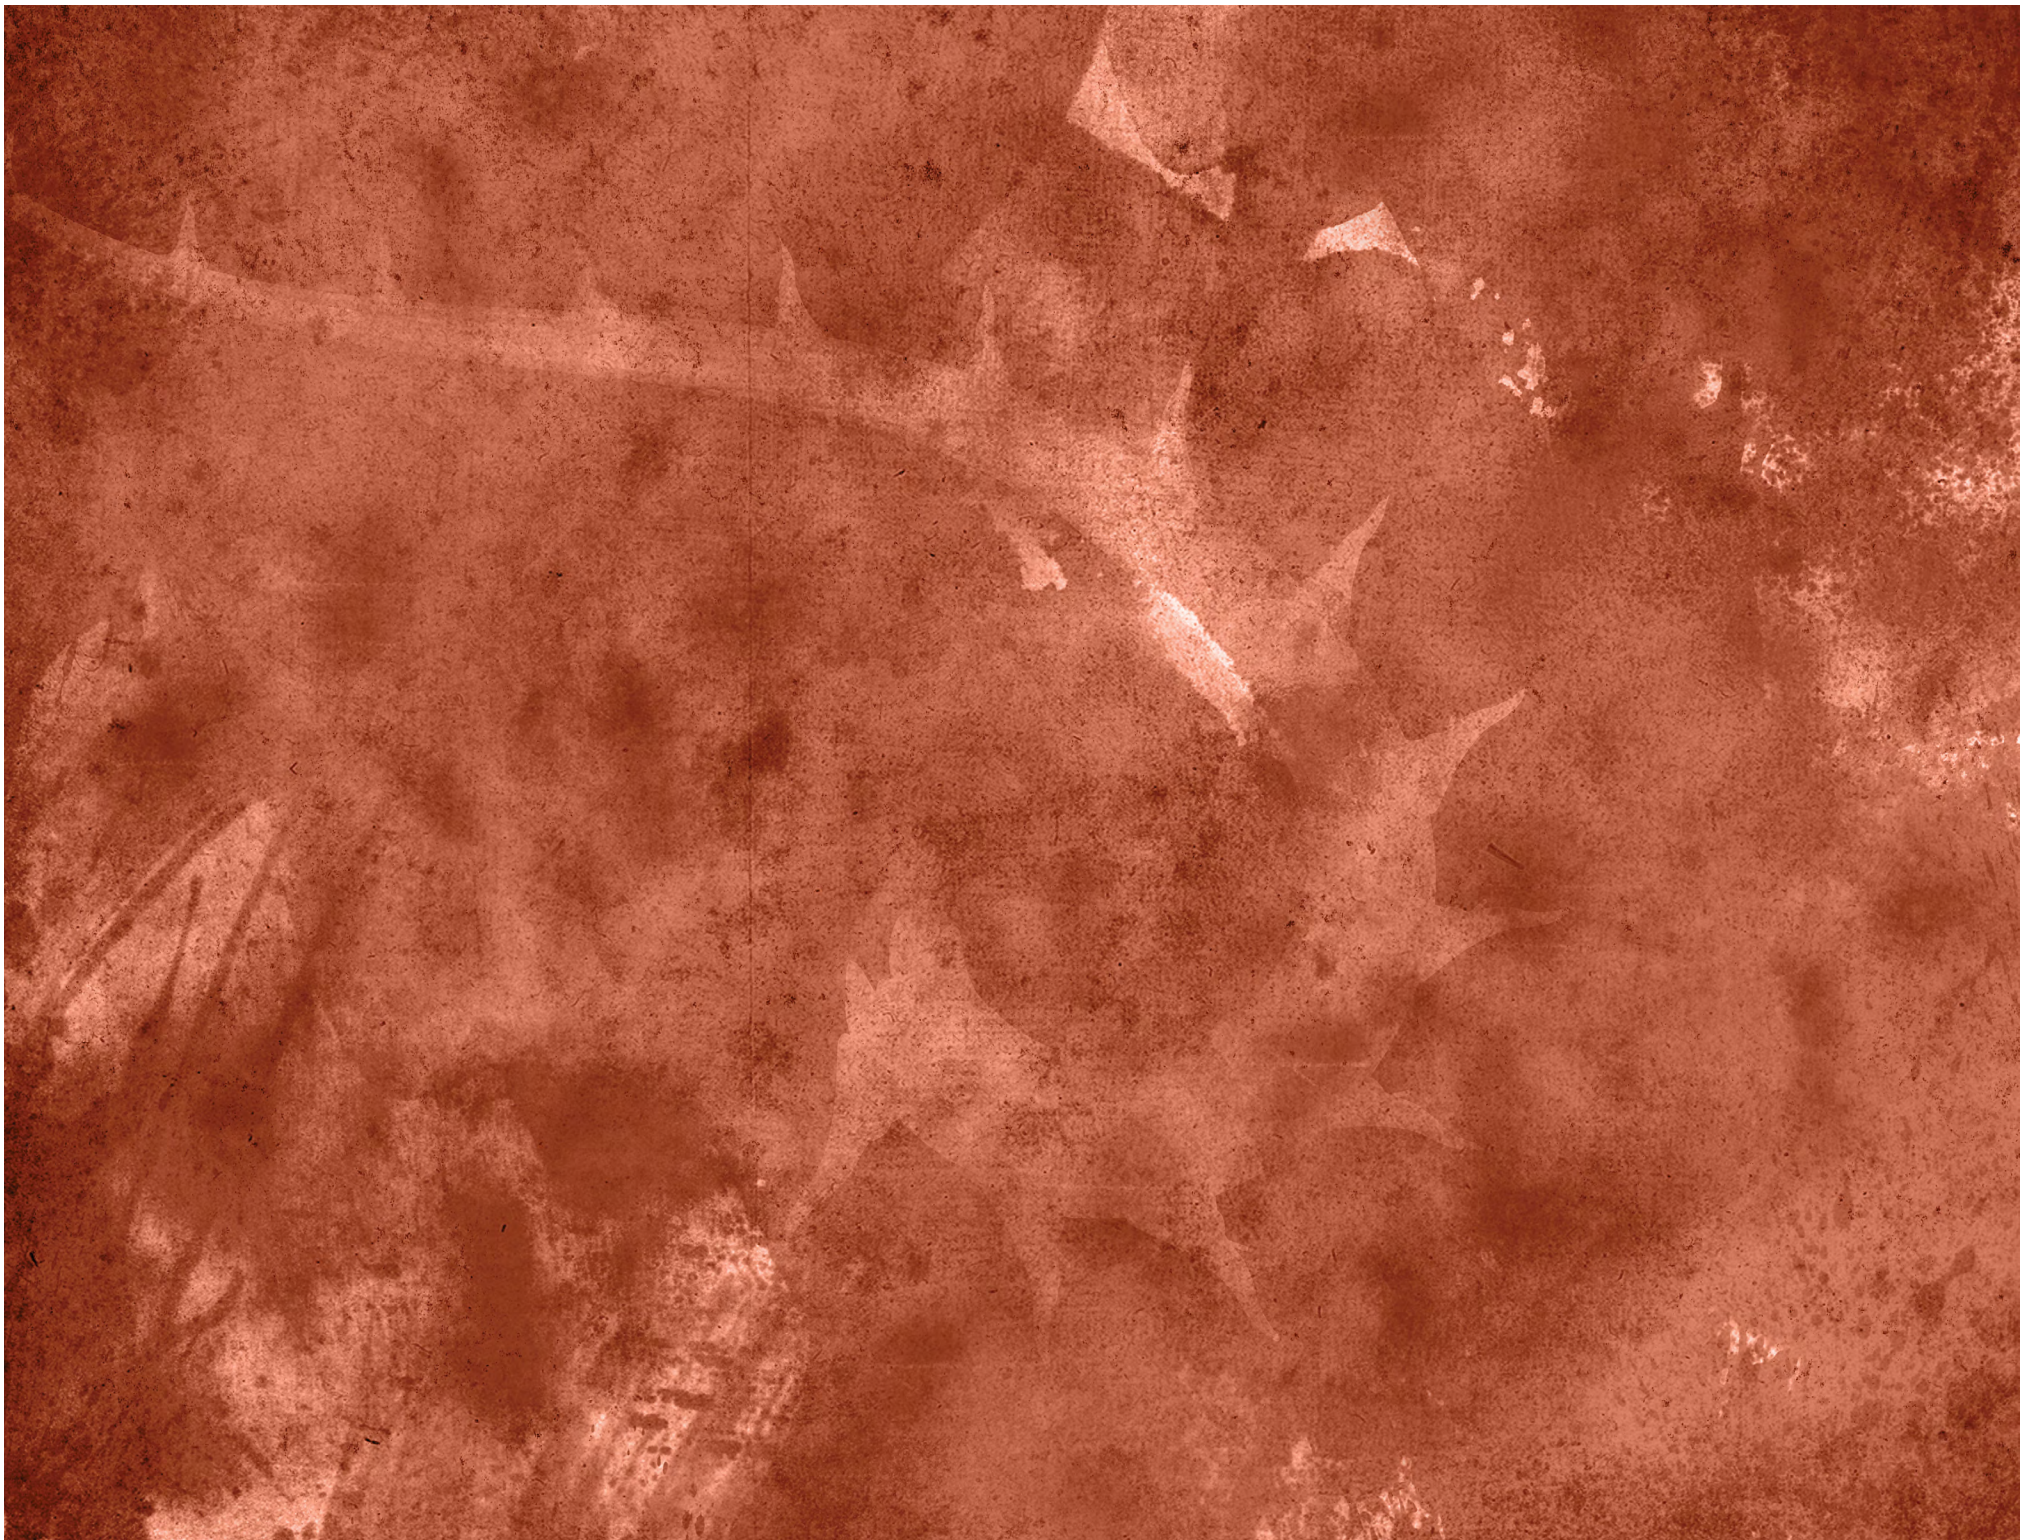

4

Continue gluing paper circles in rows under the center circle, slightly overlapping one another as you go.

Completely cover the entire styrofoam ball all the way to the bottom center.

WRECKING BALL ORNAMENTS

MAKES 3 ORNAMENTS

STUFF YOU'LL NEED

Paper

Scissors

String or ribbon

Clear tape

TY'S TIP:

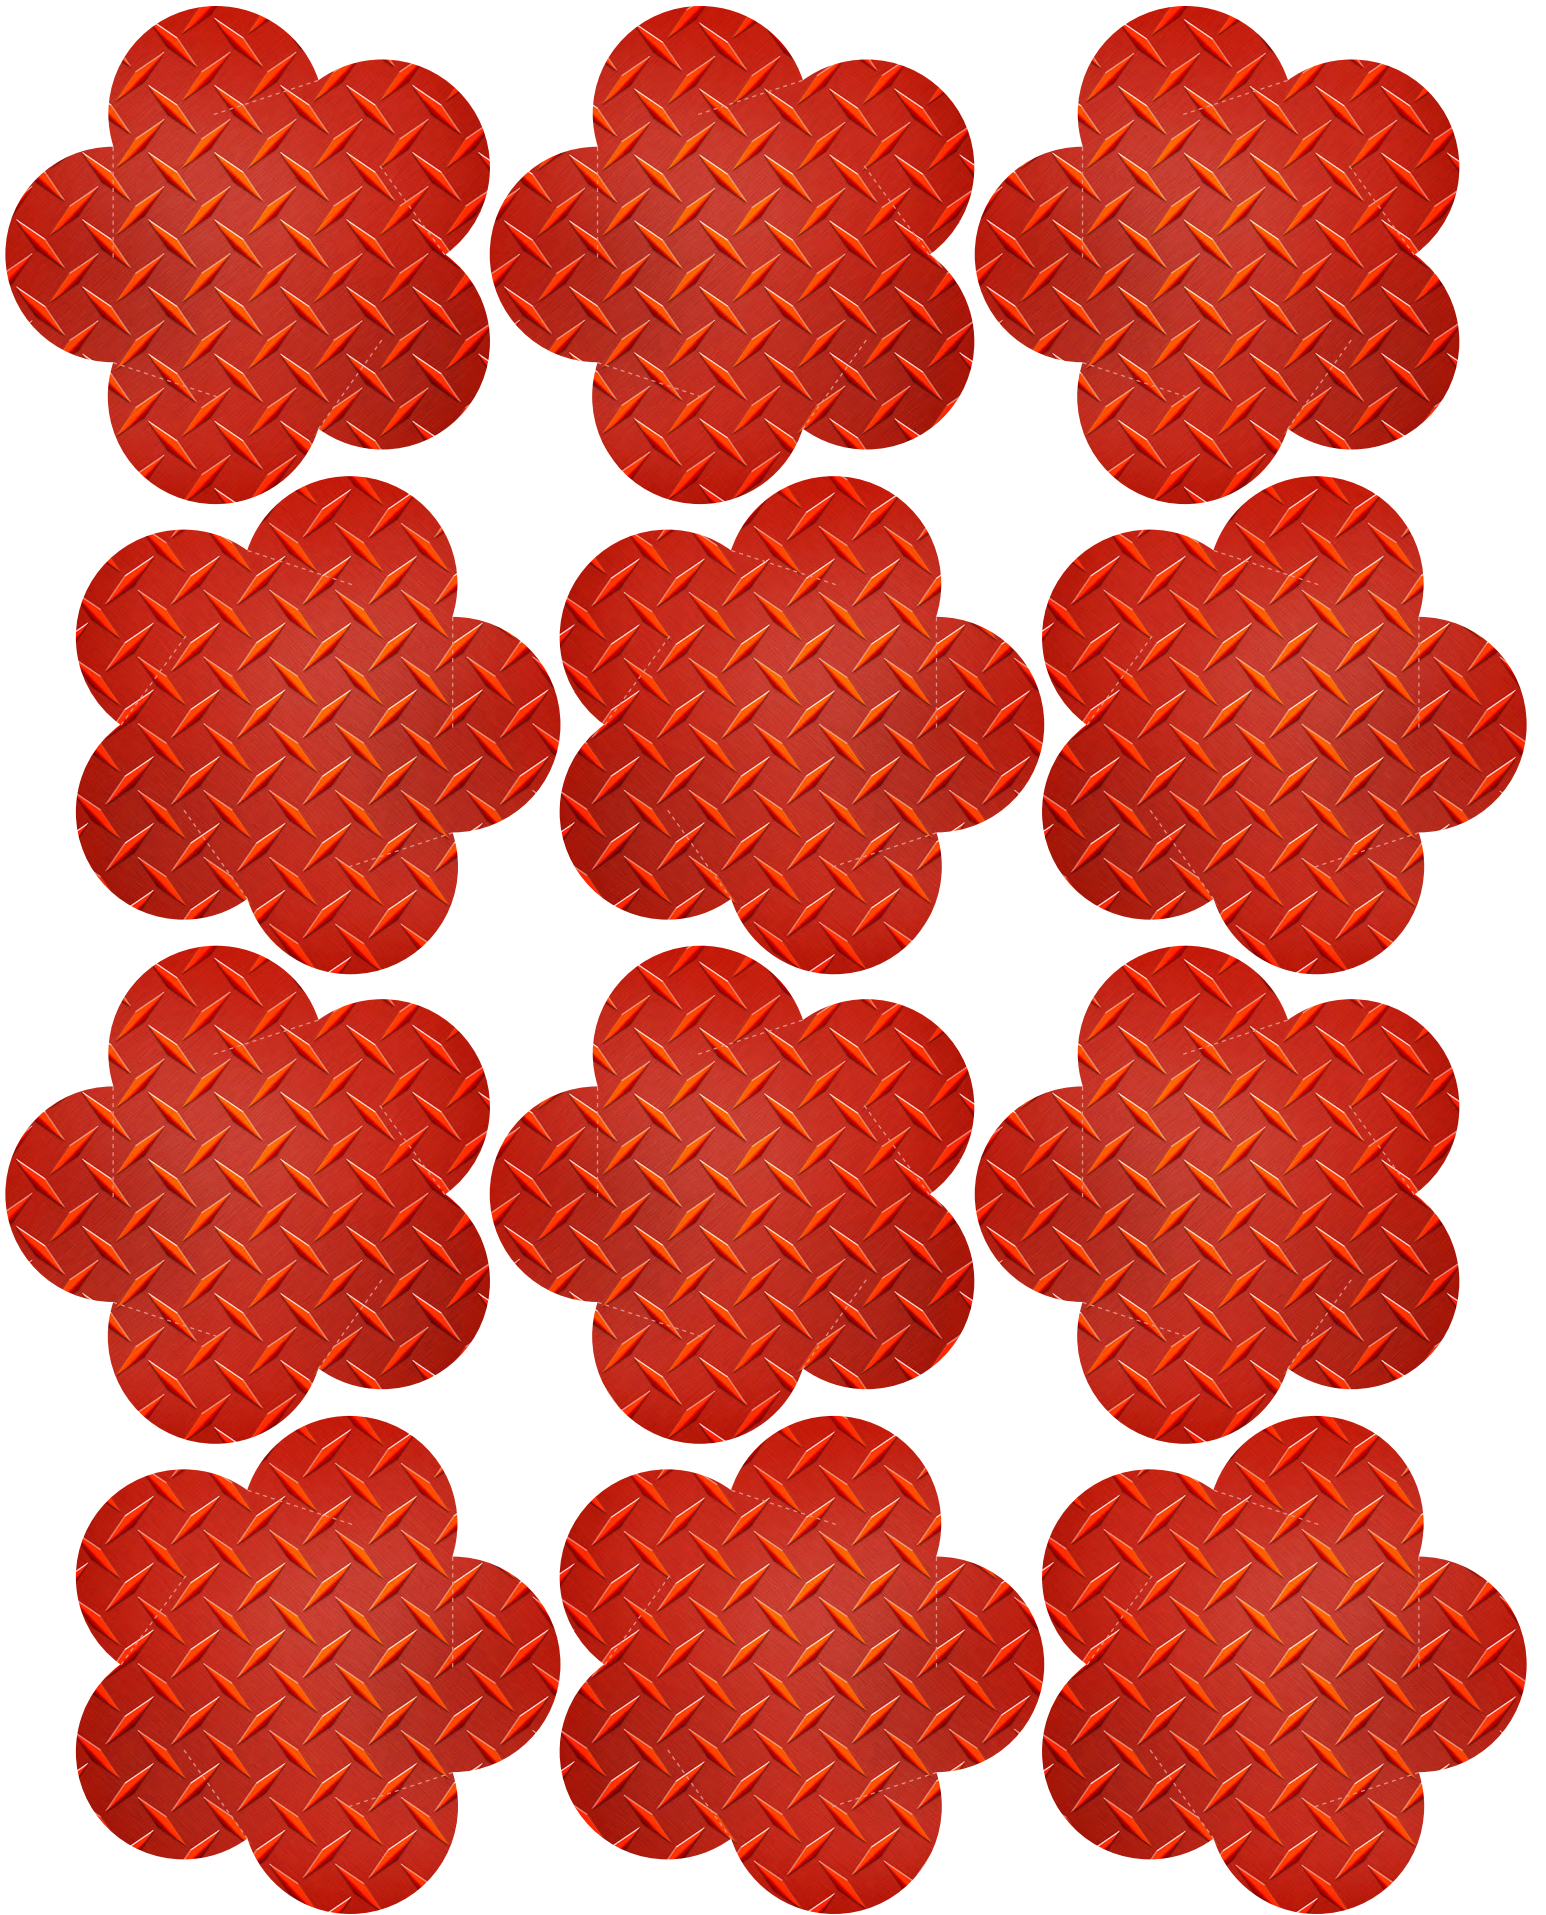

You may choose to make the ornaments from all one pattern or mix and match them to create a multi-colored effect!

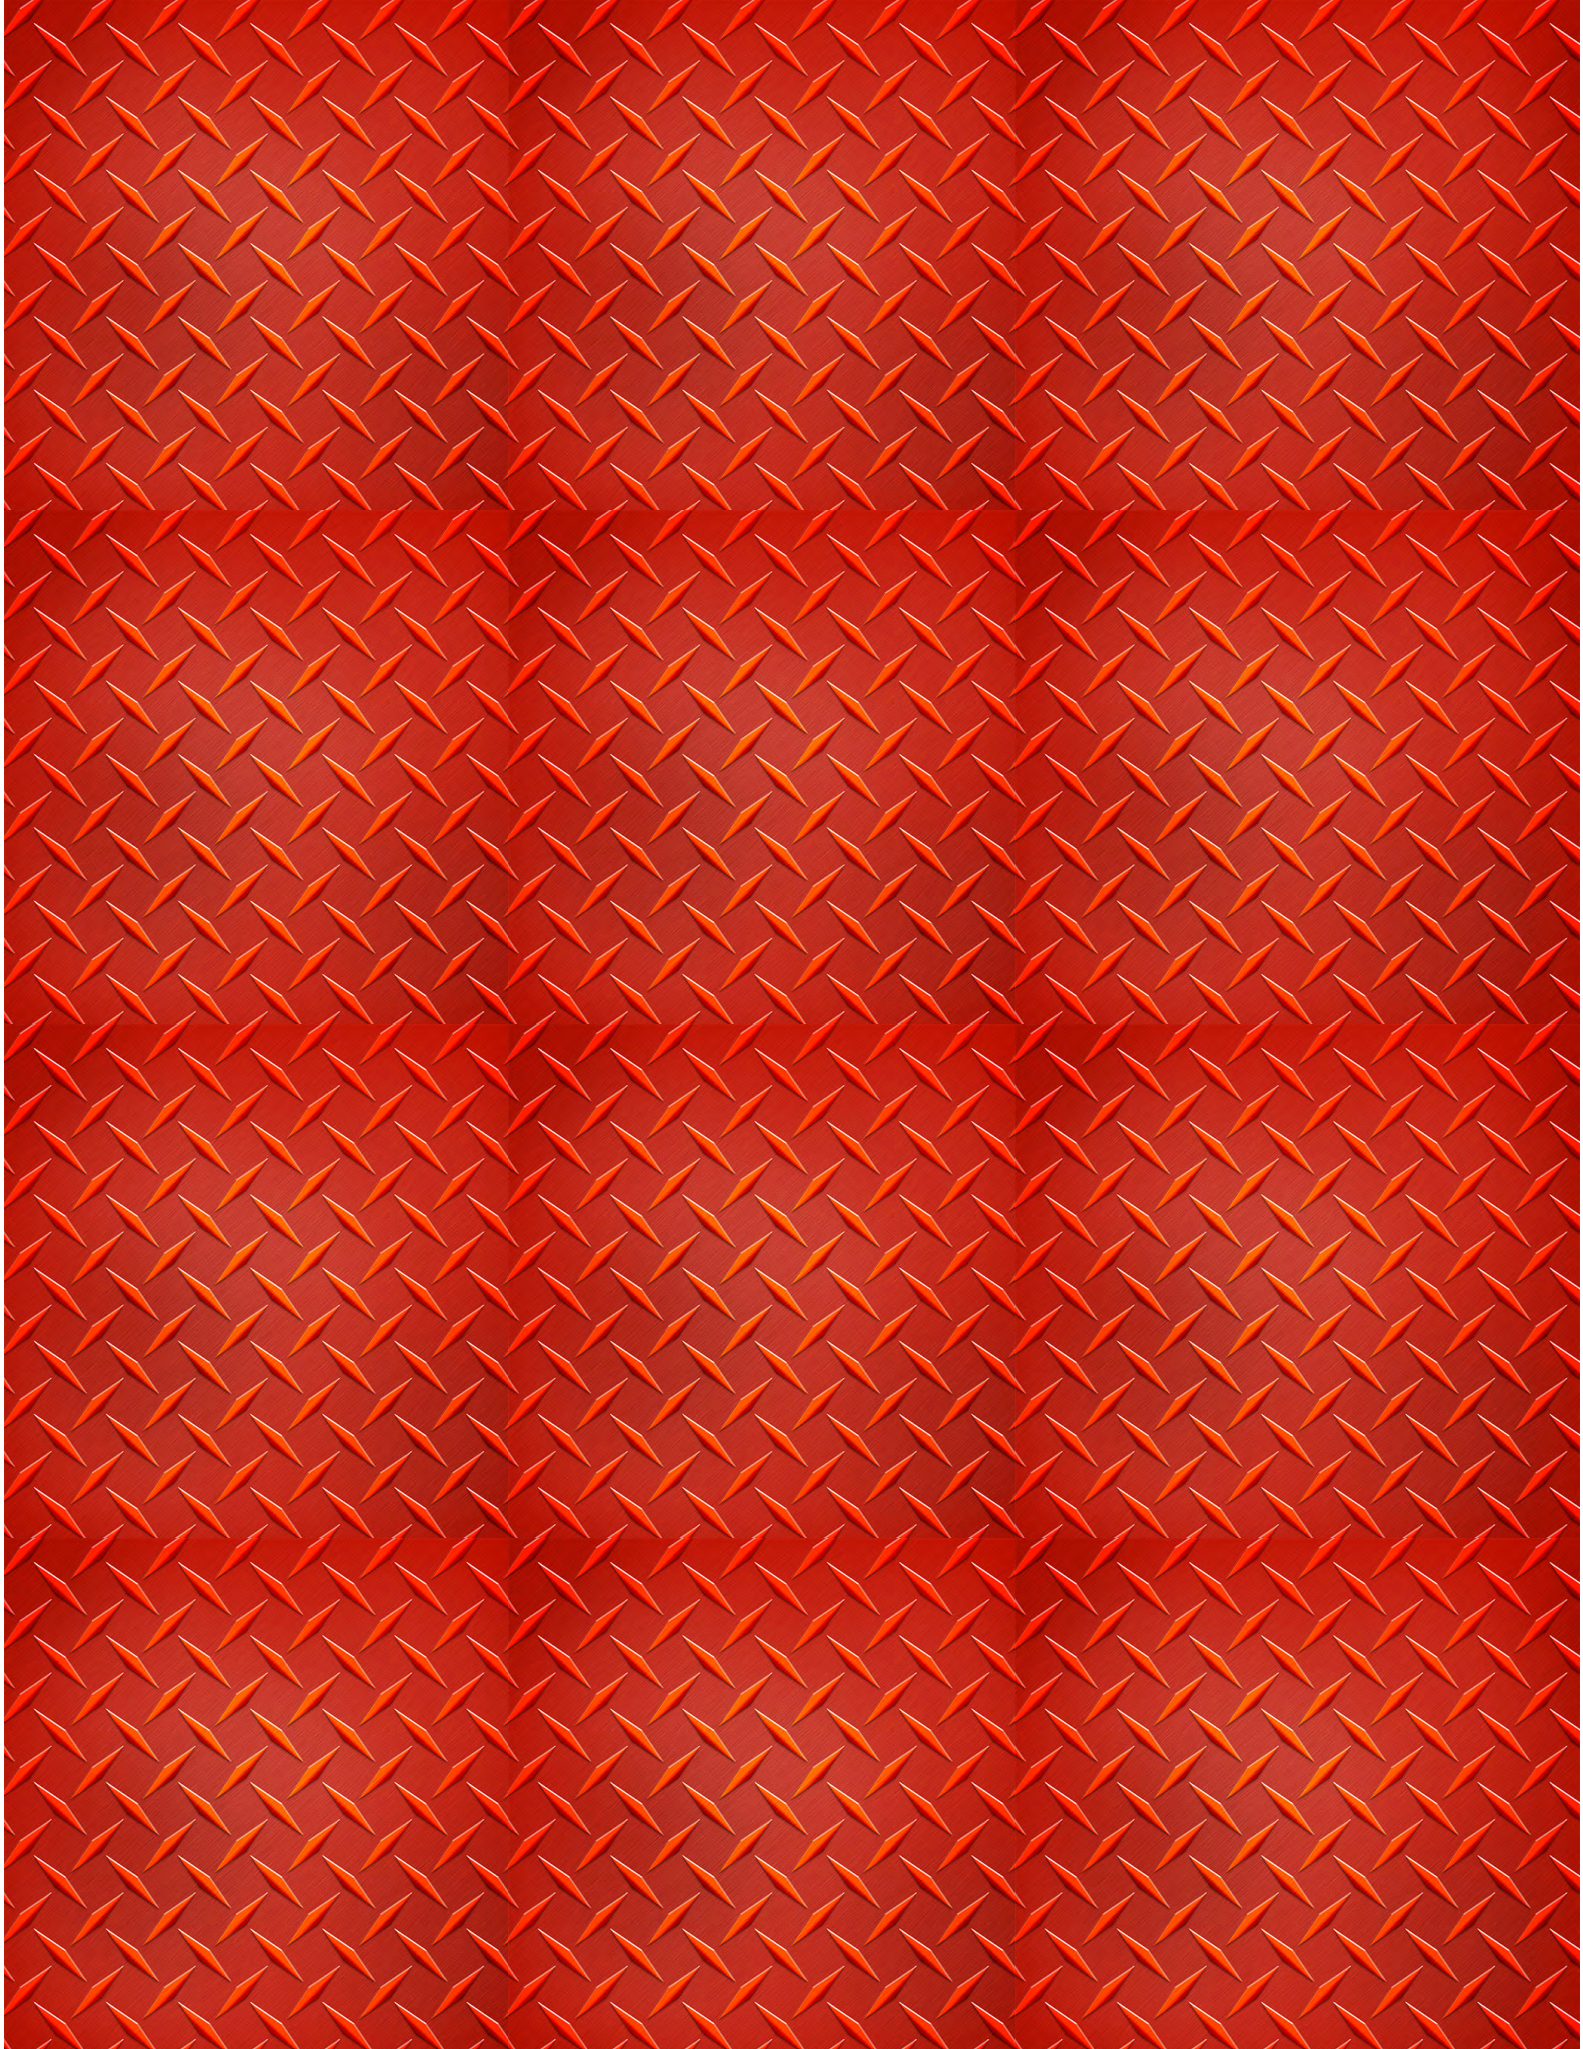

INSTRUCTIONS

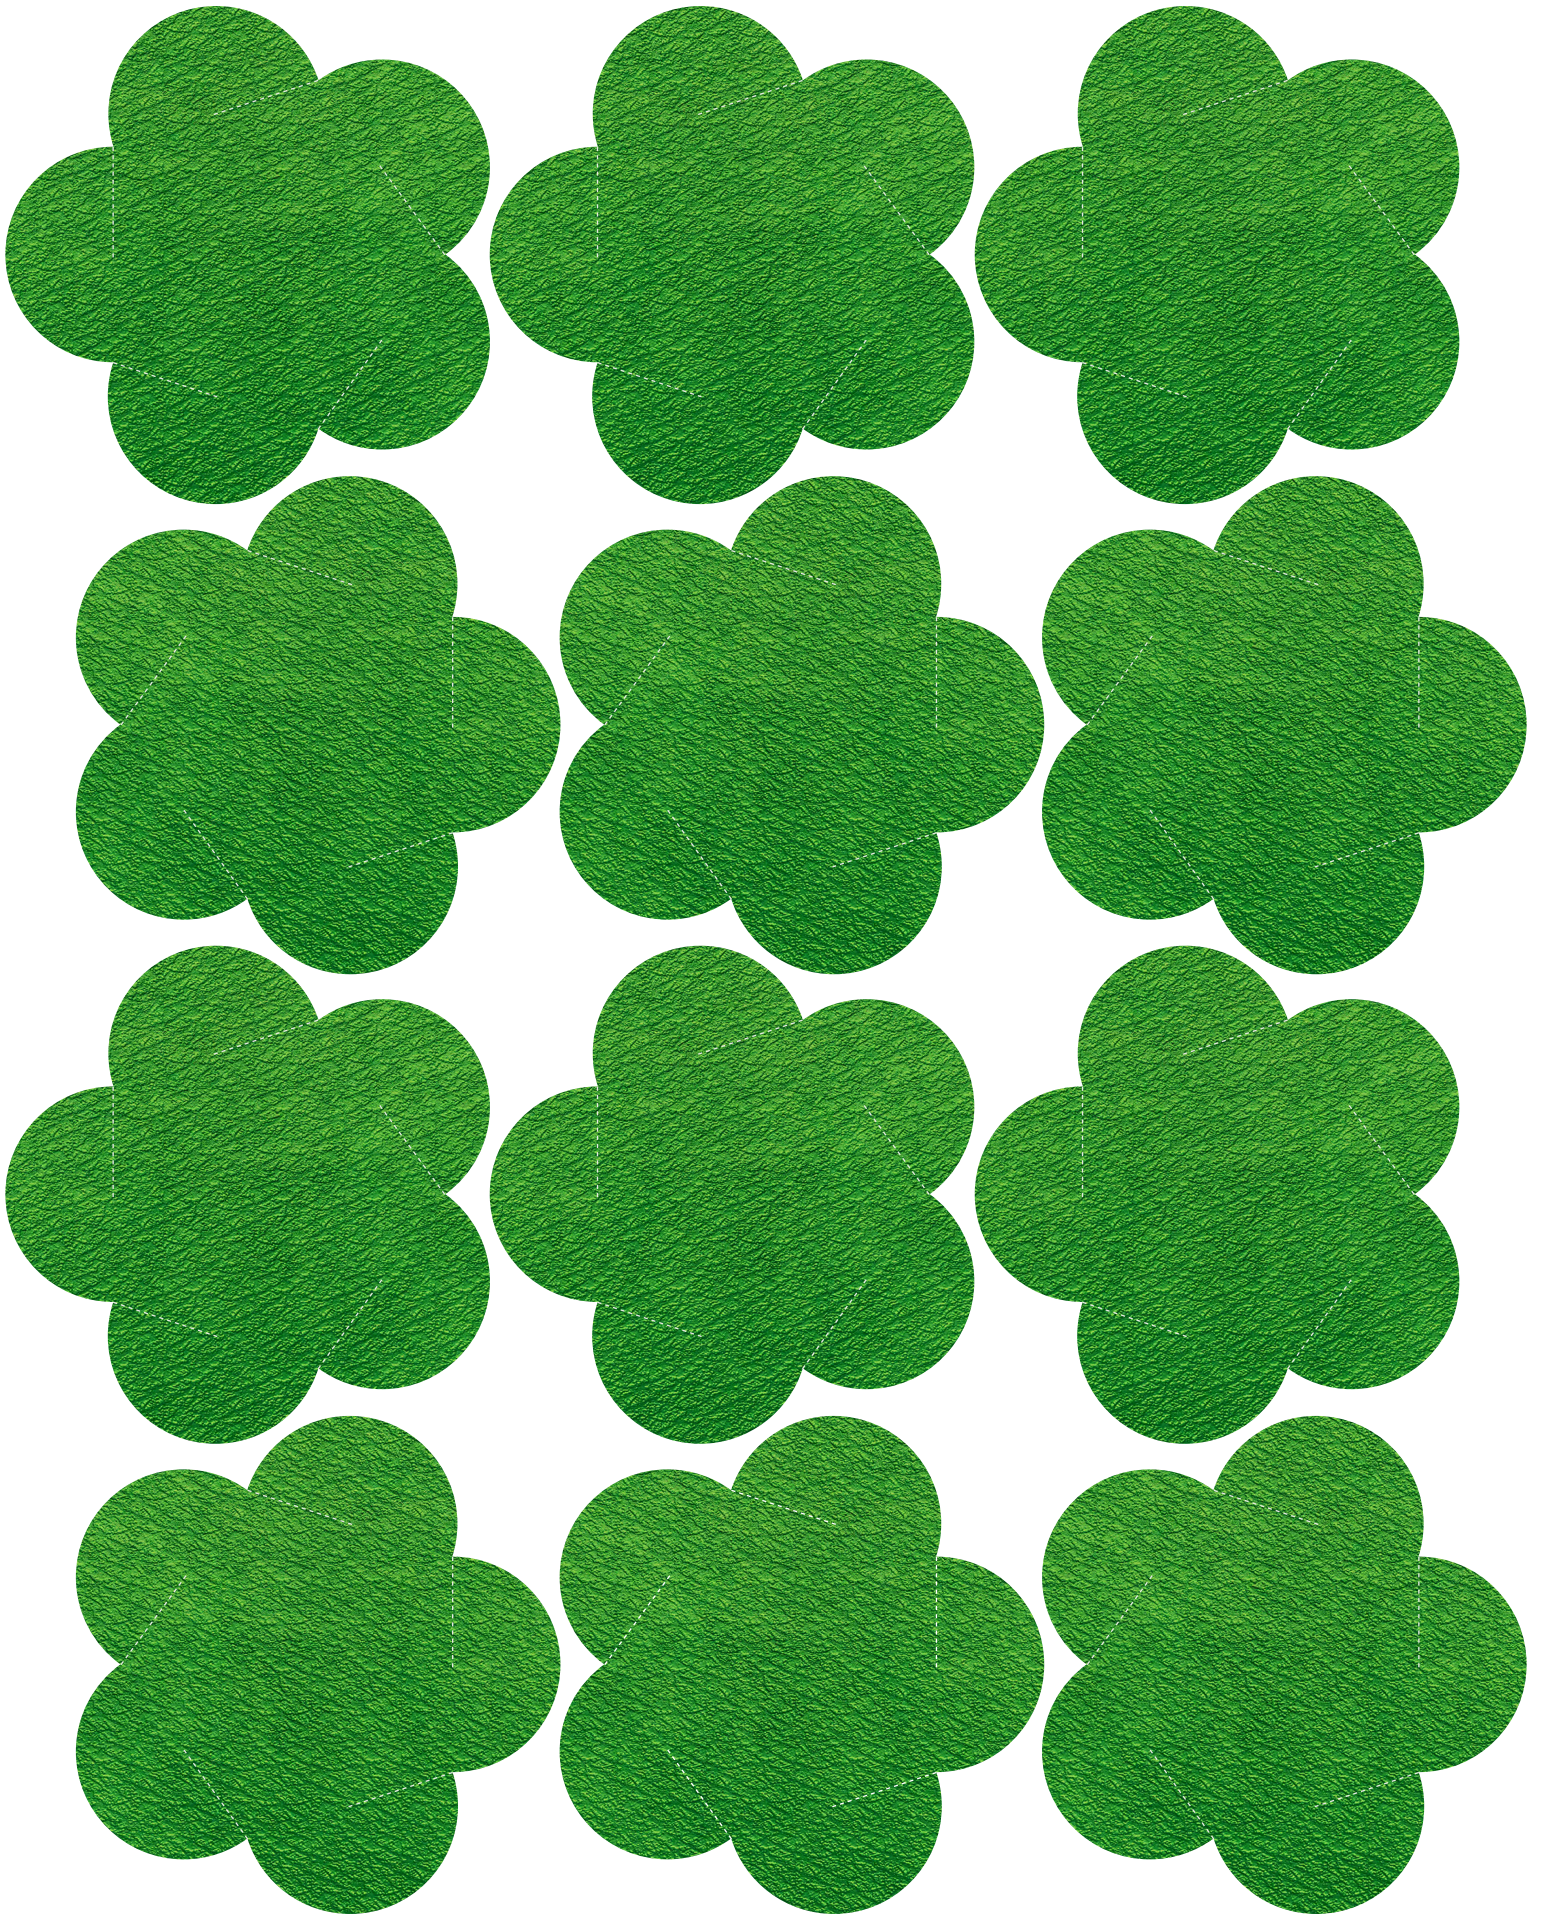

- 1 Print out each of the sheets out front and back, matching the color of the ornament shapes (front) with the color of the corresponding solid color (back).
- 2 Cut out each shape and also along the dashed line of each tab taking care to only cut halfway into the tab as the dashed line indicates.
- 3 Take one shape from each color and punch a tiny hole in the center of it.
- 4 Cut three (3) 8" long segments of your string or ribbon and make a loop. Thread both ends through the hole and tape the ends down to the back side of the paper piece.
- 5 Slide the slits of the tabs into one another to create the ball shape. Keep going until all sides have been used. There are 12 pieces per ornament.
