Have an adult help you with this. After you print Moonhaven Weekly onto a standard 8 1/2 x 11 inch sheet of paper, fold it into eight even parts like above. (the little dot is the front page of the magazine and helps you tell where you are)

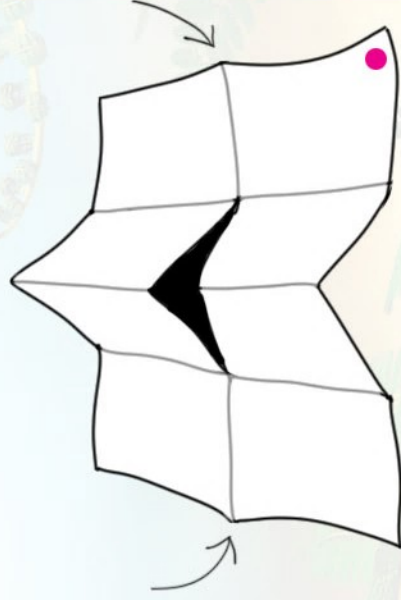

2

Now crease the folds so the paper naturally rests like above.

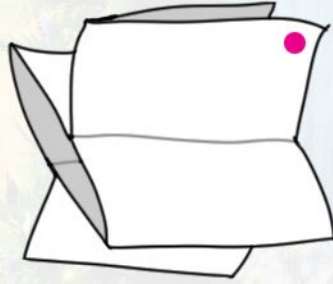

3

Fold the paper in half and cut it halfway through like above.

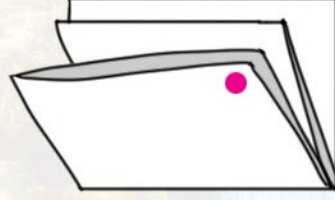

4

Place the paper down like above. Now put your index fingers where the arrows are, and lift up while folding the sheet lengthwise over your fingers.

5

While you're folding the paper lengthwise in Step 4, the middle of the sheet should buckle so that it naturally folds like above.

Now you have your eight page Moonhaven Weekly!

SHE'S JUST LIKE US!

The Queen's laid-back attitude makes her super relatable despite her high profile status, and as she's preparing to train a new pod to take over, it seems her domestic side is ready to take center stage. Although the Queen has a palace full of staff to help her, she's taking the reins on some tasks...yes, Queen Tara is learning to sew! She says she wants to make all of the royal pod's clothes as she grows up.

The Man Behind the Leaf!

THE NEWEST LEAFMEN?

If you haven't heard of Mub by now, you must be living under a rock. Of course some of you do live under rocks. Haha! Mub is a smooth-talking slug that has recently found fame because he and fellow pod-protector, Grub, have been put in charge of a special pod. Is this pod the heir to the Jinn throne? We think so! Word in the forest is that the two are now in line to become Leafmen!

GROW YOUR LOOK

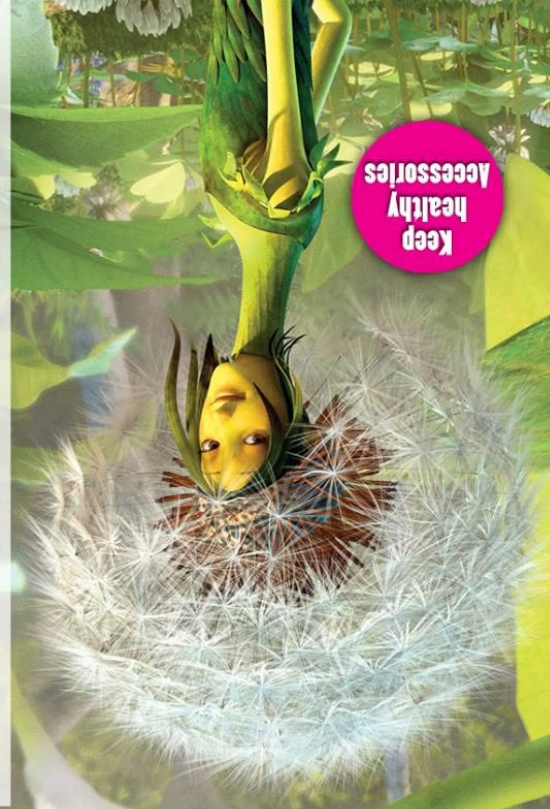

To grow your own fashion, you need to know what it takes to keep accessories healthy. Dandelion pods make fantastic evening hats as long as the pods are fluffy. Invite your worm friends for soil to do the trick! Do you have a special event? Madrone tree bark peels off in gorgeous multi-colored curls. In just six months you can grow a Madrone big enough to harvest, so get out there and start planting!

PODS OF THE PAST

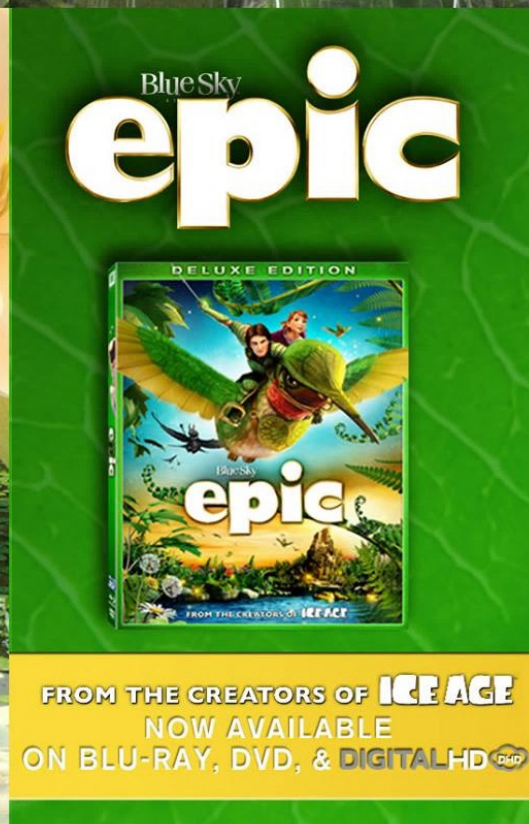

Fifth in our series of Pods of the Past, Queen Faria slept in most days as a pod, never expecting to be picked. Pod Rai was the favorite that year, and although she impressed the judges with a winning combo of brains and beauty, Faria's good nature won her the crown and she ruled for 2 generations. Pod Rai, now Elder Rai, is one of Queen Tara's royal advisors and will be in attendance on Saturday.

COVER STORY: THE POD CEREMONY

The future of the crown is yet to be decided, but we're already behind the scenes for the ceremony. We didn't see the Queen herself, but we did meet 122 amazing pods. Some have just budded while others already have their roots. They're excited but nervous about the upcoming ceremony. As decorations fill the air, the glitz and glamor of the occasion is making even the slugs and snails nervous.

NEW COUPLE?

Curious about newcomer MK being seen flying with Nod, Moonhaven Weekly went to the source of all things confusing, Nim Galuu himself. After searching the rings of knowledge, Galuu announced that Nod "likes" MK. When prodded to explain if Nod "likes" her or "like likes" her, Galuu suggested that we, "Stop being party poopers." Are Nod and MK a couple? What do you think?

Who is she?

When it was recently revealed that new girl in town, MK, has connections to the stormers, citizens of Moonhaven turned up their noses. While we agree it's quirky, we still think she's cute, so here's the lowdown on this sassy redhead...She's a nature lover, but has a love/hate relationship with mice. She's been spotted with a ex-Leafman, Nod, and rumor has it they're more than just friends.

EYE WITNESS

As tensions mount between Mub and Nod, it seems Mub feels he has prior claim to MK's heart. However, Nod told Ronin, who told Queen Tara, who told Marigold Jinn, who told this reporter, that they are "just friends". Grub, friend to Mub and eyewitness, says, "Mub called Nod a flat face." So does MK like flat faces or does she prefer eye stalks? We'll keep you posted as we learn more.

NEW COUPLE?
Where were they headed?

SPOTLIGHT ON: NIM GALUU

Flamboyant forecaster, Nim Galuu, spent a whopping three-plus hours shaking hands, snapping pictures, and high-fiving the massive crowd after his latest performance. While he chatted with fans, we asked about that secret scroll. "The time may be coming soon when everyone will know," he hinted in reply. Could it be a solution to the Boggan problem? Galuu's hint tells us it's important, but time will tell just how important!

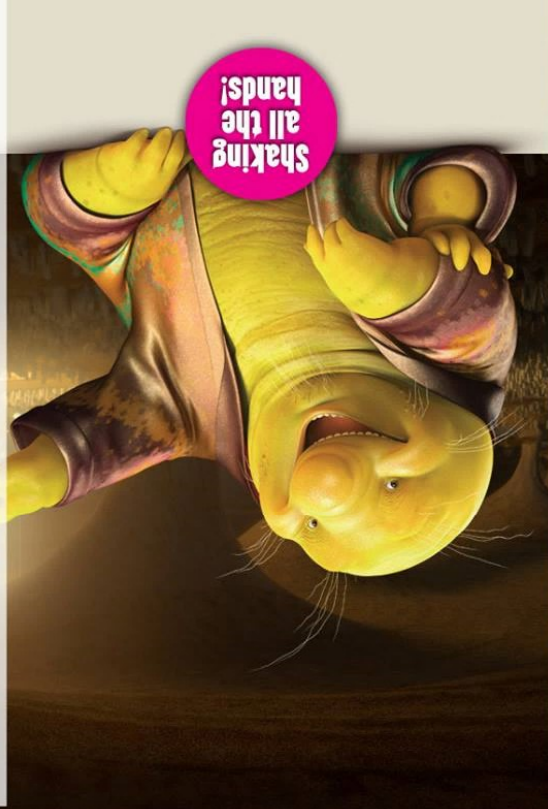

STICK'S MEMOIRS

Stick, bird jockey and lead detective for the Leafman Patrol, insists that his new memoir isn't a tell-all. Hiding in Plain Sight, which arrived in stores Tuesday, was published to honor the victims of Boggans. "Well, I wrote it because Moonhaven needs to know what's really happening," he said on Tuesday's Good Morning Moonhaven show, "I don't want anymore Boggan rot in the forest."
