Meet
MINKA MARK™

Hi! Today the pets and I walked through the park. Actually, we had to run to keep up with Minka! She's so excited to be outdoors, she runs ahead and starts swinging from the trees, talking the whole time! Later, Minka worked on her painting. How can she throw paint on the canvas without spilling any? I have no idea!

xoxo, B

This is Minka's self-portrait. "Paint by the numbers" with colored pencils to complete her work of art!
