

pudding 'n Worms

WHEN HE'S NOT BUSY TEACHING MAD SCIENCE, MR. HACKINGTON LOVES TO COOK.
HERE'S AN OLD FAMILY RECIPE YOU CAN TRY AT HOME!

WHAT YOU WILL NEED:

- 1 package instant chocolate pudding
(and whatever ingredients are listed on the back of the box)
- Chocolate sandwich cookies
- Gummy worms
- Disposable clear plastic cups
- A plastic baggie
- A rolling pin (optional)

WHAT YOU WILL NEED:

(Note: Mr. Hackington strongly recommends using real worms.)

1. Place a few cookies in a small plastic baggie and seal it shut.
2. Gently crush the cookies with a rolling pin until the crumbs resemble dirt. (You can also use an unopened soup can.)
3. Make the pudding according to package instructions. Divide evenly and pour into clear plastic cups.
4. Top each cup with a layer of cookie crumbs.
5. Stick 1 or 2 worms inside each cup so it looks like they're crawling out of the dirt.
6. Enjoy your creepy treat!
